FOUNDERS DAY

Friday, Nov. 14, 2014

Through Their Eyes: A Conversation with Our Chancellors
Time: 11:30 a.m.–noon
Location: East Ballroom, Price Center

UC San Diego’s history will come alive through the descriptions and recollections of the leaders who helped to shape our stellar university. Join us for a candid, wide-ranging discussion of UC San Diego’s rise to prominence as seen through the eyes of our fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth chancellors. From the early days in 1980 when Richard C. Atkinson took the helm, through the years of explosive growth in the 1990s and 2000s under the leadership of chancellors Robert C. Dynes and Marye Anne Fox, to the completion in 2014 of our first-ever strategic-planning initiative led by Pradeep K. Khosla, the chancellors will relay their views about the challenges and opportunities that have shaped one of the nation’s premier universities. Moderated by Associate Vice Chancellor and Chief Alumni Officer Armin Afsahi, the conversation is sure to offer new insights—and surprises—about our campus.

Open to the public.

FOUNDERS DAY FESTIVAL

Friday, Nov. 14, 2014

Time: Noon–2 p.m.
Location: Town Square

Stroll the world’s fair featuring student entertainment, a food circus and activities from academic departments across campus showcasing how UC San Diego’s discoveries have had a global impact for more than five decades.

Open to the public.
