Rady School of Management Phase II

Project Location
North Campus Neighborhood

Project Description
In 2007, the first phase of the Rady School of Management was completed and provided 83,000 gross square feet of classroom, office and student support space. The Phase 2 project will add 80,000 gross square feet, including additional classrooms, an open class laboratory, faculty and administrative offices, conference rooms, an auditorium, and student work and study areas.

Project Purpose
This project will accommodate faculty and students in the Masters of Business Administration (MBA) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) programs as well as continuing professional education for the business community. The Rady School's mission is to develop ethical, visionary leaders who will innovate business practices that transform the world, and push the boundaries of industry, using new techniques and technologies to change the way business is done.

Project Cost
$47.2 million

Fund Source
State, gift and campus funds

Current Phase
Completed May 2012

Architect
Ellerbe Becket

Note: Capital projects develop over time, therefore the information on this project sheet is likely to change over time. For the latest information and data please contact Community Planning at commplan@ucsd.edu